When are we going to Liverpool
When are we going to Spain
When are we going to Istanbul
When will you stop the rain

When are we going to Amsterdam
Does that mean we won't go to Rome
I will go anytime, anywhere
But now I want to go home

The sun and the moon are my allies the water my mate
The air in the sky with the wind that brings me my fate

When are we going to Moscow square
When will we get to Gnome
The shores of Bodrum call me there
Just like the Irish shores of stone

How far until the Scottish hills
Can we make it there alone
Gibraltar straights guide my sails
Unto waters unknown

Call unto me my sweet sister sea with your gilding hands
I'll follow your tides and run white capped waves to a foreign land

The stars won't deceive me
If I keep them in sight
The bow will then lead me
All through the night

When are we going to Liverpool
When are we going to Spain
When are we going to Istanbul
When will you stop the rain
