

Airborne

Sometimes it hits me in the face
How quickly I can be replaced
Am I worthy was it worth it
What did I do to deserve this day I've had

Sometimes it hits me in the head
I'd rather be alone instead
In my apartment where my heart was ripped apart and then you left me there for dead

First I left, haven't slept it's the truth I must accept
Always falling never getting airborne
First it's up and then it's down, always crashing to the ground
Never taking off never getting airborne

Sometimes it stabs me in the back
I inventory all the little things I lack
I conceived it I believed it didn't see how I deceived myself so bad

First I left, haven't slept it's the truth I must accept
Always falling never getting airborne
First it's up and then it's down, always crashing to the ground
Never taking off never getting airborne

My friends they tell me I'm a fool
How can love be so cruel
Is it me or is it you?

First I left, haven't slept it's the truth I must accept
Always falling never getting airborne
First it's up and then it's down, always crashing to the ground
Never taking off never getting airborne

And now it's done you haven't won
Was was two is now just one
You won't keep me now from getting airborne

You've been grounded and surrounded by the things you say around me
Now I'm flying and I'm getting airborne
Getting airborne
Getting airborne
