

Who Will Save Rock & Roll?

The Karma Factory Music & Lyrics © 2017 Scott Lippincott, Nursery Rhymes Music (BMI)

All our heroes have gone to hell Strung out on drugs or thrown in jail

And nobody listens
And nobody listens

Current artists are one and done
Where are they now?
On VH1

And nobody listens
And nobody listens

And sometimes I wonder
Who will save rock & roll?
Who will save rocks & roll

Someone tell if I am wrong Does it all sound like they wrote the same song

Does anyone listen?
Does anyone listen?

There's no more DJ's on the radio
There's no more shows you have to go to

Because no one is listening
Nobody is listening

And sometimes I wonder
who will save rock & roll?
Who will save rock & roll
